Day 3: Game drives in Ngorongoro Crater – Serengeti
National Park

Check out of the hotel and drive to the Ngorongoro Conservation Area after breakfast. The precise phrase for the crater is that it is nearly 20 kilometers broad and 600 meters deep. If you're lucky and it's a clear day, you can see all the way around the crater walls from the bottom. Today you'll go on a game drive across the crater floor, via grassland and forest, to see Lake Makat, a soda lake. The Big Five – buffalos, black rhinos, elephants, lions, and leopards – may all be found in the Ngorongoro Crater. Cheetahs, zebras, hippos, serval cats, hyenas, and wildebeest are among the numerous animals found there. You will have lunch at Ngoitoktok, thereafter you will proceed with the game drives. Late afternoon drive to Serengeti for dinner and overnight.
